II. THE CREMATION CONTAINER/RECEPTACLE SELECTION AND AUTHORIZATION FOR THE RELEASE OF CREMAINS:

1. Print your name and relationship to the deceased and the deceased individual's name in paragraph one.
2. Choose a cremation container for the individual to be placed in for the actual cremation. Typically, the most common is a Alternative Cardboard Container supplied by the Crematory. This could be a wood or specifically designed cremation casket or it could be a container provided by the family. Containers provided by the family must be fully combustible and dimensions must be discussed with the Funeral Director. Choose a Cremation Receptacle (Urn). The Crematory will return the ashes in a cardboard box unless the family chooses something different. Your choice is sometimes determined by the final means of disposition of the cremated remains. Be sure to discuss the final means of disposition with the Funeral Director prior to making this selection.
4. Print your name and address as the person authorizing this Authorization.
5. Print the name and address of the person the Funeral Home is to release the cremated remains to.
6. Sign and date the form as the Authorizing individual.

Please review your answers carefully and once satisfied that the information you are providing is correct please print and sign your name across the bottom of the last page of the appropriate State worksheet. Corrections that are required due to wrong information provided by the family will result in correction fees from the State.
